Oliver Moghissi Asset Integrity Management Award

Award Description:

Recognizes exemplary support to the materials protection and performance industry through work that bridges the gap between maintenance/operations activities and the use of business management systems in the realm of asset integrity.

Successful nominees will have:

- Demonstrated longstanding contributions resulting in industry-recognized products, services, standards, or similar resources that will increase asset life cycles by bridging the gap between technical management and business management,
- Led industry to have an increased focus on business-centered corrosion management strategies by asset owner organizations to increase asset sustainability, safety, and optimizing efficiency, and/or
- Enhanced awareness, outside of the corrosion control industry, of the importance of the corrosion control industry.

The candidates' contributions must be conspicuous, meritorious, and broadly impactful. The nomination must include a comprehensive and detailed statement substantiating how the nominee fulfills the criteria.
